Glen S. Hatch, sixth son of Joseph and Jane Clyde Hatch, born June 10, 1897, in Heber, married Virginia Mansfield in January of 1918. They were parents of two sons, Glen M., attorney and state senator, and Melvin, civil engineer.

Glen S. Hatch received his early education in the Heber schools and then attended the University of Utah school of law until the country entered World War I. He immediately enlisted in the 145th Regiment of Utah Regulars and was sent to Camp Kearney, California, for training. He was married while on Christmas leave, and upon returning to Camp Kearney was ordered to France with the Utah Replacement Detachment and then went to Germany with the 90th Texas and Oklahoma Division. With the war over, he returned to Salt Lake and worked in a printing office while continuing his law studies. He graduated in 1924 and after passing the bar examination returned to Heber to practice. He later moved back to Salt Lake, where he has been active in the American Legion and the Utah State Bar Association.

Henry Ray HATCH

DR. H. RAY AND MARY LEONA MILES HATCH

Henry Ray Hatch was born April 20, 1886, in Ashley, Utah, son of Abram Chase and Maria Luke Hatch. He married Mary Leona Miles on June 4, 1908. She was born January 2, 1889, in Payson. Parents of five sons, William Ray, agricultural attache to the embassy at Iran; John Sumner, M. D.;

H. Ray Hatch

Harvey Allan, M. D.; Joseph Miles, M. D., and Charles Steven, M. D.

Prominent in Heber City as well as Idaho Falls, Idaho, where he has lived since 1920, Dr. Henry Ray Hatch has held important positions throughout his life. He has pursued an active medical career, but has also found time to serve one term as mayor of Heber, was second counselor to President Joseph R. Murdock in the Wasatch Stake Presidency, served on the Wasatch Stake high council, was president of the North Idaho Falls Stake, first president of the Idaho Falls Temple Mission and Bureau of Information, and patriarch of the North Idaho Falls Stake.

He also served as a first lieutenant in the Army Medical Corps during World War I. He attended public schools in Heber and the University of Utah, where he graduated in 1908. He then entered Rush Medical College in Chicago and graduated in 1910. He was baptized a member of the Church while in Chicago, on October 28, 1909. Returning to Heber, he began practicing in 1910 and continued until 1919, when he moved to Idaho Falls. With his sons, who are doctors, he has operated the Hatch Clinic in Idaho Falls. He is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons and has achieved many professional honors.

Mary L. Hatch lived most of her young life in Salt Lake City, where she attended the University of Utah. She also attended the Illinois School of Pharmacy and the Art Institute of Chicago. She served in the Wasatch Stake Primary and YLMIA and was president of the Idaho Falls Stake MIA. She was the first president of the North Idaho Falls Stake Relief Society and was a Sunday School teacher many years. Her husband and five sons credit her with much of their success.
